1 SCOPE OF APPLICATION

1.1 This Regulation defines the structure, bodies, functions, and interaction rules of the Internal Quality Assurance System (hereinafter – IQAS) at the faculties of Khoja Ahmed Yasawi International Kazakh-Turkish University (hereinafter – the University).

1.2 The Regulation applies to all faculties, departments, structural divisions, academic staff (faculty members), and students of the University.

1.3 IQAS refers to the internal quality assurance system of the University/faculty based on the Standards and Guidelines for Quality Assurance in the European Higher Education Area (ESG).

1.4 The Faculty IQAS supports the development of a quality culture that involves everyone — from students and academic staff to university and faculty leadership.

1.5 The term “quality assurance” is used in this document to describe all types of activities within the continuous improvement cycle, i.e., activities aimed at quality assurance and enhancement.

4 DESCRIPTION OF THE PROCEDURE

4.1 General Provisions

4.1.1 The overall structure of the Faculty IQAS is formed in full accordance with the 10 ESG standards:

- Quality assurance policy;
- Design and approval of programs;
- Student-centered learning, teaching, and assessment;
- Admission, progression, recognition, and certification;
- Teaching staff;
- Learning resources and student support;
- Information management;
- Public information;
- Ongoing monitoring and periodic review of programs;
- Cyclical external quality assurance.

4.1.2 The Faculty IQAS is implemented through the procedures of the Academic Policy, UE-H.A.Yassawi-002-2023, and this Regulation.

4.1.3 Main performance indicators include:

- Quantitative and qualitative indicators of the Qualification Requirements of the MSHE RK;
- Quantitative and qualitative indicators of the University's internal professional ranking and national/international rankings of educational programs;
- Quantitative and qualitative indicators from the University Development Plan and Operational Plans.

Here is the official English translation of your section 4.2–4.5 in the same formal and regulatory style, fully aligned with ESG terminology and international QA documentation standards:

4.2 Composition of the Faculty Internal Quality Assurance System (IQAS)

4.2.1 Dean of the Faculty – provides overall leadership and coordination of the faculty's IQAS activities.

4.2.2 Faculty Council – a collegial body that carries out the overall management of the faculty's activities, including the internal quality assurance system. It approves the policy, goals, and allocation of resources, and coordinates the integration of science and education.

Regulation on the structure of the internal quality assurance system at the faculty level version 29.09.2025		5- нз 12 стр

4.2.3 Academic Committee (by field of study) – a collegial body responsible for developing new educational programs at all levels of training, ensuring their registration in the University Register, and organizing accreditation and periodic renewal of existing educational programs based on the results of internal and external evaluation.

4.2.4 Faculty Educational-Methodological Committee (EMC) – a collegial body ensuring the provision of the educational process with methodological materials and pedagogical developments that promote the advancement of student-centered learning, teaching, and assessment.

4.2.5 Faculty Quality Assurance Commission (FQAC) – a collegial body that monitors the compliance of the faculty's internal quality assurance system with the European Standards and Guidelines for Quality Assurance in the European Higher Education Area (ESG), covering both higher and postgraduate education quality.

4.2.6 Commission and Expert Group for the Recognition of Formal and Non-Formal Learning Outcomes, as well as Professional Qualification Recognition Results:

The Recognition Commission is a collegial body composed of representatives of the academic and administrative staff and the teaching faculty. The Commission reviews submitted applications and documents, verifies their compliance with regulatory acts and university policy, and makes decisions on the recognition of learning outcomes and qualifications.

The Expert Group is established to conduct a professional evaluation of the comparability of declared learning outcomes and qualifications with the University's educational programs. The group includes academic staff and subject-matter experts, as well as representatives of academic administration. The Expert Group prepares conclusions and recommendations that form the basis for the Recognition Commission's final decisions.

4.2.7 When necessary, working groups may be established on specific areas such as academic integrity, assessment, inclusion/digitalization, resources, communications, and data management..

4.3 Main Areas of Activity and Tasks of the Faculty IQAS

4.3.1 Quality Assurance Policy

The Dean and Faculty Council shall:

- align faculty activities with the University's quality assurance policy;

The Academic Committees, Faculty EMC, and FQAC shall regularly publish information about their activities on the University's IQAS web section and are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the data.

4.3.8 Public Information

All IQAS faculty bodies shall:

- regularly publish and update information on programs, events, and achievements on web platforms;
- provide clear, accurate, and objective information tailored to different stakeholder groups;
- ensure the participation of faculty, students, and employers in program development, quality evaluation, and improvement through surveys, hearings, round tables, and working groups.

4.3.9 Continuous Monitoring and Periodic Evaluation of Programs

- The FQAC organizes regular monitoring and evaluation of educational programs;
- The Faculty EMC carries out expertise of educational-methodological materials;
- The Academic Committee conducts annual internal audits (self-assessments) of programs and decides on improvement, revision, renewal, or removal from the Register;
- The Dean and Faculty Council analyze the activities (plans, monitoring results, recommendations, corrective measures, etc.) of collegial bodies and make decisions regarding internal quality assurance.

4.3.10 Periodic External Quality Assurance

All IQAS faculty members participate in institutional, program, and post-monitoring accreditation processes and are responsible for participation in various rankings.

- Departments, together with IQAS collegial bodies, prepare self-assessment reports for program accreditation;
- The Dean and Heads of Departments organize accreditation procedures during visits of external expert panels and develop and implement corrective action plans based on accreditation outcomes;
- All IQAS faculty members prepare and provide materials for participation in professional, national, and international rankings.

4.4 Procedure for the Operation of the Faculty IQAS

4.4.1 The composition and annual work plans of the FQAC, Academic Committee, and EMC are approved each September.

4.4.2 Reporting includes: interim semester reports and an annual quality report (covering indicators, audit results, corrective actions, etc.).

4.4.3 Surveys by educational program and analysis of feedback from students, graduates, faculty, and employers are conducted during the internal audit period.

4.4.4 Faculty IQAS documents (regulations, orders, meeting minutes, reports, etc.) are stored at the faculty and published on the University website.

4.5 Rights of the Faculty IQAS Members
